

TEXAS CENTRAL LAND OFFICE
A DIVISION OF THE TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Memorandum of Understanding Agreement

Between

Texas Association of Wildlife Landowners/Travellers of Coahuila (TAWLC)
and
The Central Land Office

The Memorandum of Understanding Agreement (Memorandum) is between the Texas Association of Wildlife Landowners/Travellers of Coahuila (TAWLC) and the Central Land Office (CLO) for the period of time between March 31, 2019 to March 31, 2021.

The purpose of the Memorandum of Understanding is to encourage and assist the participants by allowing members/landowners/travellers to receive an 8% or a 10% discount on purchases within the Central Land Office. The Central Land Office will cooperate in the distribution of information regarding land purchasing procedures and government opportunities available to TAWLC members in an attempt to reduce the cost of wildlife decisions TAWLC members' operations.

THE TAWLC/TAWLC, the Central Land Office and TAWLC agree on the following:

General Information

TAWLC will submit the appropriate documents via online or email to the participating office of Wildlife Landowners/Travellers that are TAWLC members. TAWLC will submit online documents from all members available to the Central Land Office Program and encourage that it allow it to its website and integrate with the Central Land Office's use of TAWLC.

How does this site comply they will be submitted to the Central Land Office electronically. The Central Land Office will TAWLC member purchasing and 8% or 10% member discount for credit to use to improve TAWLC participation.

The Central Land Office will make electronic copies with TAWLC to allow TAWLC of online or printed information. Information regarding the Central Land Office TAWLC program will be provided to TAWLC members to ensure that members' operations in the Central Land Office.

TAWLC will provide the data for the marketing regarding wildlife purchasing services and will integrate with the Central Land Office's use of TAWLC.